

Shannon Gabriel is an experienced recruiter with deep roots in manufacturing. She is responsible for building our stable of skilled, vetted interim resources and for helping clients fill key operational leadership roles quickly.

Shannon Gabriel

Managing Director, TBM Leadership Solutions, LLC

With over 20 years of recruiting experience, Shannon previously was Vice President of Sales for Systematic Business Consulting. Her clients included companies in the food, automotive, injection molding, forging, aerospace and many other manufacturing sectors. Prior to Systematic, Shannon was Division Manager for Austin Nichols Technical Search as well as ProStaff and Kforce.

Shannon has deep experience in recruiting for the manufacturing sector and understands how to connect qualified operational leaders for manufacturing and supply chain roles. She will help clients who are struggling to fill vacant leadership positions by identifying interim operational professionals who can fill key roles quickly and drive immediate performance improvements. This allows hiring managers and HR departments to focus on finding full time, qualified candidates for permanent roles while the interim professionals from the leadership solutions team keeps business running smoothly.

Shannon earned a Bachelor of Arts from Fort Hays State University where she captained the varsity tennis team. She lives in Wake Forest, N.C., with her husband Jeff and their two sons.